REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

On Remembrance Sunday, we give thanks for the courage and sacrifice of British and Commonwealth servicemen and women who lost their lives in the two World Wars and in conflicts around the world since. We remember, too, all those wounded by war, their families, and everyone who continues to live with its effects.

War memorials bearing the names of the fallen remind us of the terrible cost of conflict and of our responsibility to work for peace. As we wear the red poppy in remembrance, may we renew our commitment to be peacemakers in our homes, our community and our world. In silence, let us pray for all who have died, for those who mourn, and for people living in the midst of conflict today.

I warmly invite you to join us for Mass this Wednesday evening as we remember our departed family members and friends. The Mass is our special prayer for them, as we commend them to God's loving mercy. Before mass, we will gather in the Peace Garden for a time of prayer. You are welcome to bring a candle to light in memory of someone you love: its flame will be a sign of remembrance, hope and the prayers we offer to God. Following this, families, friends and children are especially welcome to Holy Mass for the departed souls. Let us make time to pray for those who have died. We need one another's prayers, and we entrust our departed loved ones to God.

Prayer for the Vocations

Gracious and loving God, we thank You for the gift of our priests, help them to be strong in their vocation and become instruments of Your love and grace. Send Your Holy Spirit to give courage and guidance to all You are calling to the Priesthood, Diaconate and Religious Life in our Archdiocese. May those called, hear Your voice, and respond wholeheartedly to become the person You have created them to be. Heavenly Father, form us all in the likeness of Your Son, Jesus Christ the Good Shepherd, so that we may love You more deeply and serve You more faithfully. We ask this through Christ the Eternal High Priest.
Amen.
